

Across the Diocese Week of October 12

Reminder of the upcoming virtual class with Ray Suarez of NPR and other fame entitled Civil Conversation in Uncivil Times: Practicing Our Faith in the Public Square. It looks quite interesting and you can register here.

This opportunity was made known to us by Bishop Rickel. If you are interested, clicking on “register here” does not commit you to anything, and the course is free.

‘The Path’ Continued: A Study of Holy Scripture

October 18 @ 10:00 am - 10:45 am

|Recurring Event (See all)

Online

St. John the Baptist, West Seattle, offers a weekly exploration of the New Testament.

Find out more »

The Spirituality of Bread in the Christian Life

October 19 @ 7:00 pm - 8:15 pm

|Recurring Event (See all)

Online

Join Christ Church, Tacoma for this companion to the spirituality of wine class, in which participants will explore the role of bread, the staff of life, in Christian spirituality.

Find out more »

Fall Women's Book Club

October 20 @ 9:30 am - 11:30 am

|Recurring Event (See all)

Online

This fall, join Holy Cross, Redmond for a discussion of "What is religion, what is a belief system, and why do we believe?"

Find out more »

The Political Commitments of Anglicans

October 24 @ 11:00 am - 12:00 pm

Online

Join Christ Church, Tacoma for a discussion on the ways in which Episcopalians rightly engage the political process in this election year.

Find out more »

Becoming Beloved Community NOW webinars

Available for viewing here